Location

The property is located in Bicester, a historical market town, in the Cherwell district of northeastern Oxfordshire in south-central England. The town is located approximately 17 miles north of Oxford and 32 miles south of Northampton. Bicester is well connected with access provided via the M40 and A41 which in turn links to the M1 and M4 Motorways.

The property itself is located on Sheep Street, a popular pedestrianised retail thoroughfare. The property benefits from good public transport links with a number of bus routes servicing the local area. In addition there are local pay and display car parks, such as the Cattle Market car park a short 10-minute walk East. Sheep Street is home to a number of local and national occupiers including Lounges, JD Wetherspoon and Coffee #1.

Description

The property comprises a two-storey building that is configured to provide ground floor sales space with an excellent frontage onto Sheep Street. As well as additional first floor space which can be used as ancillary storage.
